

Résumé

Arnd Mühle, Spokesman of LBB-INVEST's Board of Management

Arnd Mühle has been spokesman of the Board of Management of Landesbank Berlin Investment GmbH ("LBB-INVEST") since January 2016. His main responsibility is the fund and asset management for equities and bonds.

From 1996 until the end of 2015 Arnd Mühle worked at Landesbank Berlin AG (formerly: Bankgesellschaft Berlin AG) in various leading positions at different locations. He started as head of portfolio management for propriety investments, continued as head of controlling for key accounts and subsequently worked at Landesbank Berlin's London Branch as investment manager for asset-backed securities. In 2004 Mühle returned to Berlin to become head of the bank's long term funding.

In 2008 Arnd Mühle was appointed general manager of the Bank's Luxembourg and London Branches as well as CEO of Landesbank Berlin International S.A. in Luxembourg.

Mühle started his professional career at WestLB in the public loans department before taking over a position in swap settlements. From 1993 on he worked in WestLB (Europe) AG's Copenhagen Branch, first as credit analyst for Scandinavian banks and corporates, later in derivative sales for institutional consumers.

Arnd Mühle undertook his training as a banker with WestLB and subsequently graduated in business administration.

He also took part in the executive education program „The Challenge of Leadership“ of INSEAD in Fontainebleau/Singapore.
