

RÉSUMÉ

Dyrk Vieten, Managing Director of LBB-INVEST

Dyrk Vieten has been a member of the senior management of Landesbank Berlin Investment GmbH ("LBB-INVEST", Bankgesellschaft Berlin Investment GmbH until July 2006) since 2002. His primary responsibilities include the areas of marketing and sales, which comprise both retail and institutional business.

Prior to joining LBB-INVEST, Mr Vieten managed the Dusseldorf branch of Berliner Bank AG from 1997 to 2002 and was also responsible for the group's entire private banking business in North-Rhine Westphalia. He had joined Berliner Bank AG in 1986, where he was assigned responsibility for various functions in the securities section and appointed head of section in 1990. In 1993, Mr Vieten was appointed departmental director and then director in 1997.

Dyrk Vieten commenced his career in 1982 in the investment advisory services and acquisition unit at Stadtsparkasse Mönchengladbach, where he had previously completed his vocational training as a qualified bank officer.

Date: February 2016